Description	Join us for a delightful day trip from Zurich to the enchanting city of Lucerne, followed by a relaxing boat ride and a funicular journey to the stunning Burgenstock. This experience offers a perfect blend of exploration, leisure, and breathtaking views of Switzerland's picturesque landscapes. Begin your day with a scenic bus ride from Zurich to Lucerne, which takes about an hour. Sit back, relax, and enjoy the stunning Swiss countryside. Snap a picture of the lion monument, and explore Lucerne on your own with the famous chapel bridge. Wander through the picturesque streets of the Old Town, where you can admire the colorful frescoed buildings, visit local shops, and enjoy a coffee at a quaint café. After exploring Lucerne, board a scenic boat that will take you across the pristine waters of Lake Lucerne. Enjoy the refreshing breeze and panoramic views of the surrounding mountains as you cruise to your next destination. Upon reaching the Burgenstock area, hop on the funicular railway that takes you up the mountain. This scenic ride offers breathtaking views of the lake and surrounding peaks, providing the perfect opportunity to take stunning photographs. Once at the top, explore the beautiful Burgenstock resort area. Enjoy the well-maintained walking trails, take in the sweeping views of Lake Lucerne and the Swiss Alps, or simply relax and enjoy the serene atmosphere. If time permits, visit the Burgenstock Hotel, famous for its luxurious amenities and picturesque surroundings. Come back to Lucerne to meet your driver guide and ride back to Zurich.
