Description	Board our confortable bus with our driver guide, after a scenic coach ride through the picturesque Swiss countryside, you'll arrive in Grindelwald, where you'll board the famous First Cable Car. As you ascend, enjoy panoramic views of the snow-capped mountains, lush valleys, and glistening lakes. Once at the top, you're greeted by a stunning alpine paradise with activities for everyone. Nature lovers can explore the mountains, offering views of majestics peaks like the Eiger and Wetterhorn. Experience the exhilarating Cliff Walk—a sky-high walkway that hugs the cliffs with sweeping views of the valley below. The trail with a 40-meter one-rope suspension bridge promises an extraordinary adrenaline kick. You can book additional activities on spot such as zipline, trottibike, kart and First Glider, which simulates the flight of an eagle. After your time at the top, you can explore the quaint village of Grindelwald, famous for its traditional Swiss chalets, cozy cafés, and charming atmosphere. Stroll through the village, enjoy local delicacies, or simply relax and take in the stunning alpine scenery. At the end of the day, spend some time in Interlaken, charming, with traditional Swiss architecture, quaint cafés, and boutique shops lining its streets. Stroll through Höhematte, a beautiful open park in the heart of Interlaken, offering panoramic views of the surrounding mountains. Look up the sky and watch the paragliders all around.
